for Transparency

NEWS: On February 4th, 2009, Tony Peraica, accompanied by Adam Andrzejewski, Kate Campaigne of Illinois Policy Institute, and Bruno Behrend of the Illinois Citizens Coalition, introduced a Resolution for Cook County to put its check register on line. On March 4th, in a victory for taxpayers, Cook County Board has passed that resolution.

Adam Andrzejewski congratulates Commissioner Peraica and the Cook County Board for this bold, and long overdue action. Andrzejewski who spearheaded the check register transparency movement in Illinois through founding “For the Good of Illinois” in 2007, recently declared his intention to run for Governor of Illinois.

He declared that the foundation of his campaign will be to put “Every Dime. Online. In Real Time, so that every Illinois citizen can see how their government spends the taxpayers’ money” said Andrzejewski.

When informed of the Cook County Board’s vote, Andrzejewski stated, “With Cook County having the highest sales taxes in the country and Illinois suffering from a reputation of poor government, this is a step in the right direction. Citizens won a great victory today.”
